Questions to Prayerfully Answer

- What should our family do this summer—full-time school, vacation... or something in between?
- If we relax or abandon our normal routine, the kids are likely to squabble with siblings more, get bored, or gravitate toward electronics—how will we handle this?
- Are there real-life learning opportunities we want to take advantage of this summer?
- Are there things related to homeschooling that I as a homeschool parent should learn about this summer?
- Are there things related to me on a personal level that I should learn about or take care of this summer?
- What do we need MOST this summer?
